

Our Legislator Busy with:

Agriculture
Governor's Term
Tally's Tempers
Teachers' Pay Schools

Special wire from Emmett S. Roberts — PB County Representative

I am releasing today comments regarding lack of adequate appropriations over the past eight years for our Agricultural Experiment Stations. Requests of our experimental stations have somehow become lost by the time they reach the Board of Regents and Budget Commission.

Our own Everglades Experiment Station is a good example as they are in serious need of capital outlay for additional facilities. Agriculture is still the leading producer of Florida's economy and every effort will be made to increase their appropriation.

The pace of the legislature increased considerably this week with debates taking place on a number of bills. I voted against permitting the Governor to succeed himself for an additional four year term.

In my opinion Florida has been fortunate in not having a political machine and I felt that a Governor in office for eight years would be able to create a strong machine.

Florida's government under its cabinet system, functions very well and I do not think it wise to change terms of this office.

It becomes increasingly clear that tight controls being exerted upon the Legislature in regard to restricting consideration of new programs necessary in a growing state is running into trouble. Many members of the Legislature are most sincere in wanting to lay before the public the full needs of Florida.

Present library hours are from 8:30 to 12, and 1:00 to 5:00 Monday through Fridays, and additional evening hours from 6:30 to 9 on Thursdays. The committee asks if increased hours would be helpful.

Final plans for the survey were discussed at a meeting Wednesday, April 21, at 10 a. m. at the Uviers residence, 101 N. W. Avenue G, according to Mrs. Emmett Harris survey chairman.

"Parents and Juveniles To Be Held Accountable"

"Nothing in my police career has shaken me as did the realization that these six kids were mixed up in the fire at the Clubhouse early Saturday morning," said Chief of Police Charles Goodlett, as he recited the evidence and deductions that he so painstakingly accumulated to give juveniles accountability along with the six 12-to-16-year-olds.

"I could imagine them ramming the place and possibly carelessly leaving the gas jets open so that a spark from a starting motor might have started the blaze," he said, then deliberately setting the place a fire; No, that I couldn't bring myself to believe, until he had the confessions that tally, each with the other.

Sgt. Huggins who was on duty early Saturday morning drove out to look at the burning clubhouse, when the fire department notified my office, and later called me at my home when he discovered 2 carts in the canal and evidence that a rumpled had been gulged in on the greens and the golf grounds.

Also, much of the tedious and long hours of detail work to be faced before the news conference to be held Friday, April 23, will have to be done until it was known for certain that Palm Beach County has proposed a law abiding plan under which to teach its children next year."

It has been heartening to note

"The platoon is to be congratulated on its concealment and the manner in which they accomplished it's mission" said Lt. Robert V. Cochran, Commanding officer at the critique which followed a practice problem of the Shore Platoon of the 1043rd Transportation Company, Florida National Guard, along the Hoover Dike near the Pahokee Airport, Monday night.

The class was conducted in problem form on the dike of Lake Okechobee South of the Pahokee airport. The Platoon was assigned the mission to find and destroy an enemy bridge leading to a valued supply dump.

"Crossroads Of Poverty - Area Of Despair"

Mr. Wirtz, Secretary of Labor, visited the Glades this week, talked to growers and processors, to harvest hands, to tenants of homes and barracks, and disclosed to the world the worst he'd seen.

He did not say he had not visited similar conditions in Washington, Philadelphia, Chicago, and other centers of Democratic voting — maybe he was wearing smoked glasses or those visits.

Mr. Wirtz' appearance in the Glades was ostensibly to confer with sugarcane employers, and he did meet with George Wedgworth and Harry Vaughn, the heads of the largest employers of off-shore seasonal harvest hands.

A representative of the straw berry industry was also present as was Billy Roberts, a cane grower, vegetable farmer and Glades cattleman.

The Secretary of Labor's request for no publicity was apparently as sincere as were his announced conclusions about poverty and despair, for there were half a dozen cameras of off-shore seasonal harvest hands.

He found some housing passably acceptable, he found conditions "the worst he'd ever seen," he found the poor workers with no one to represent them.

There's apparently a deficiency in communications between Cabinet members, for the USDA says emphatically that they are looking after the sugarcane workers — and they do. One unsuspecting tenant of a rooming house observing, as reported that they are not like we had in the army, BUT WE HAD TO KEEP THEM CLEAN."

Mr. Wirtz wants to inject the "Great Society" into the Glades agricultural workers "misery." Mr. Wirtz pandering and their ultimate effect on those whom he says he wants to help, all became a Cabinet member of these United States, they harm the indicated recipients.

Yes, Mr. Secretary, we are in "Area of Despair," and a "Crossroads of Poverty," your distortion of admissible evidence misconstrues the little you saw and leads other trusting souls to despair our plight.

We are in DESPAIR of the casualties of your conclusions, and the hoarding of your TALENTS — the abortion of your profession, and your violation of trust as a public official of the highest political principle.

Yes, Mr. Secretary we ARE a "cross-roads of poverty" in that as we farmers lack the voting power of organized labor and other power groups, which whistle the tunes for dancing at both ends of Pennsylvania Avenue.

The problem was conducted at night in unfamiliar territory. The platoon had to use stealthy proper dress and technique to destroy the bridge without engaging the enemy unless they were forced to do so to protect themselves. Presence of the Platoon was detected by the enemy early in the problem, but the mission was accomplished in an excellent manner. A fair amount of fighting actually took place, most of it delaying action to turn the Platoon away from the target.

Cane Rat Damage

Current Problem

Says John Causey

County Agent Causey says: "The time has arrived that growers should take precautions against rat damage in their sugarcane fields as a suggestion you might contact your neighbors and put out your rat baits at the same time so that control can be obtained area-wide rather than by individual growers."

One boy told a part of the story and others began to admit participation when Charlie admonished each not to talk if they didn't want to put whatever, not to lie to him.

We feel that this may give better control of rats for all concerned."

Each boy finally confessed and filled in the missing information as to who did what, when and how.

Legion Auxiliary Selects Delegates To Girls State

American Legion Auxiliary has selected two delegates and two alternates for Girls State. The girls chosen to represent Belle Glade High School and Everglades Unit 20 are Elizabeth White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred White, 724 S. E. 2nd St., and Mary Kate Ponder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ponder, Royal Palm Way.

Finally, one boy, not the eldest, known by name to the police. Starting with this and checking each one out gave information that did not appear entirely innocent. Then when a parent reported a boy missing during the early hours and two more boys didn't show up at home, Charlie began putting facts together.

The girls chosen as alternates in event the delegates cannot attend are Linda Hollingsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hollingsworth and Kathy Forsgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Forsgren.

"Communism has taken over 17 countries in 46 years, and only force can stop this creeping paralysis to free men the world over," says this former prisoner of unwhimsy Castro for four and one half years.

The purpose of Girls State is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age in every constituent Department of the American Legion Auxiliary to afford them an opportunity to live together as self

The public is invited by Belle Glade Rotarians who are sponsoring the speaker's appearance and by his cooperation.

A Thought From The Bible

"WHOSE CHILD ARE YOU?" IS MOST VITAL QUESTION

By Lewis Llewellyn

"Jesus said unto them, 'If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I proceeded forth and came from God. Neither came I of Myself, but He sent Me . . . ' " "Ye are of your father, the devil."

Whose child are you? Not a very difficult question for most of us, but a rather important question. On the answer depends our inheritance and, to a great extent, our character. Though there are some today who talk of the universal Fatherhood of God and the universal brotherhood of man, Jesus was very definite, in speaking to a group of religious leaders, His day, when He told them clearly that they were children of the devil — not children of God.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

"If God were your Father, you would love Me," He said, "for I proceeded forth and came from God. Neither came I of Myself, but He sent Me . . . ' " "Ye are of your father, the devil."

The Bible tells us, "In this children of the devil are manifest, and the children of the devil. Whoever doeth not righteousness is not of God."

But, if the Bible makes it clear that we are not all children who may become members of His family.

"He came unto His own, and His own received Him not," John declares, "but as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God."

GO TO FATHER'S HOME

When our life on this earth is ended, we will go to our Father's home. Those who have lived as children of the devil must expect to go to the home of their father.

The Bible says, speaking of the judgment, "Then shall He say also unto them on the left hand, 'Depart from Me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil, and his angels.'"

It is equally plain that the children of God will go dwell with their Father.

Jesus said, "In My Father's house are many mansions . . . I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place, and I will come again and receive you unto Myself, that where I am there ye may be also."

Whose child are you? You can be a child of God.

John 8:42, 44.

WILLIAM F. LAUTZ

Mr. Lautz and his family left Belle Glade for Japan in 1951. There he and those working with him have established four churches in the prefecture of Yamana Prefecture area on the Japan Sea Coast. These churches are now directed by national leaders.

When they return to Japan this summer the Lautzes hope to enter a new area with the gospel — possibly on the island of Shikoku. Many towns and villages there today have no Christian witnesses in them.

Rev. Ray Miller, local pastor, cordially invites the public to attend these meetings.

Roberts Warns Little Counties Against Unfair Reapportionment

On a flying trip home for the weekend, Representative Roberts gave THE HERALD the following statement:

"A statement last Friday by Senator Nick Connor, President of the Senate, that he had received two plans on Congressional redistricting from Congressman Jim Haley's home in Sarasota. This plan would combine the districts of Don Fuqua and D. R. (Bill) Matthews.

"The combined population of these two districts only equal the national average of congressional districts—412,000."

"Congressman Paul Rogers, sixth district, of which Palm Beach County is a part, is one of the largest in population in the country. Broward and Palm Beach are in the same district, and should be divided, with North Dade and Broward being a district by itself."

"Palm Beach along with neighboring counties of Hendry, Glades, Lee, Collier and Martin could remain intact."

"If the attempt is made to divide Palm Beach County into separate districts, court action will be taken."

"The two small North Florida districts (Fuqua's and Matthews') should be combined, and the extra seat given to South Florida."

"Population figures used are based on 1960 Federal Census, although present figures would exceed those of 1960 by a large percentage."

"The Supreme Court has said that the National average be 15 percent above or below the national average, giving some flexibility to redistricting."

BASEBALL — and BOYS!

Recent happening in the Glades in which youth of junior baseball age were criminally involved emphasizes the need for a more complete program of youth in baseball.

There are fourteen teams in three leagues in Belle Glade — Farm, 9 to 10, Little League, 11 to 14 years of age and the Pony League with ages of 13-14.

Fitted to the squad is the complement allowed under the rules; many more will participate in "trying-out" for the teams.

Participation teaches the youngsters to work with other boys, work with the managers — getting along with other folks and having some consideration for their rights, feelings and desires.

Participation in the YOUTH IN BASEBALL program teaches the principle of "working for what you get" reward for accomplishment and fairness to all concerned.

Participation is a must for the successful in BASEBALL AND BOYS.

Parents of girls should be just as interested as parents of boys, for the girls and boys will have great influence on each other.

There are many young fathers and unmarried men in this community who have a baseball background, and/or ability to take a team and manage it for the short time each spring.

You may not be known to the Committee as a baseballer and one who will contribute time to the program.

If you are one of these, or if you know of an individual, do the favor a favor, do your community a favor and YOURSELF a favor call Jimmy Herring, Ray Roth, or any of the other members of the group.

Attended one of the practice sessions after school hours and volunteer; the boys need you, and the community needs you.

Traffic Violations To Be Checked Drinking, Invalid Driving Licenses

"It is my intention to instruct my officers to stop any juvenile, or teenager, driving after ten o'clock at night to inspect driving licenses. If there is any evidence of drinking — and there's a lot of juvenile drinking going on — and the offenders will be booked. Juveniles turned over to proper authorities, and those 17 or over will be dealt with as any adult."

"It is my firm belief that a great majority of juvenile traffic violations are attributable to home conditions and lack of parental discipline. Parents are NOT paying their children the proper attention, nor exercising normal parental discipline."

"What the citizen of ten to fifteen years hence are these kids ARE THE CITIZENS OF THE NEXT GENERATION?"

Publisher Speaks At BPW Meeting

"Most of the great accomplishments of our state and nation began with plans formulated by small groups such as this," Herald publisher Luther Jones told a group of Business and Professional Women at their Monday night meeting.

"We felt no one was better qualified to talk to our club on Civic participation," chairman Iversie Ashley said in introducing the speaker.

Jones outlined how our own community progress has come about largely through a flood control program, which he emphasized had its inception in just such a small group as this. Ideas discussed and plans formulated at a small gathering of Glades folks grew into a statewide program that gained federal recognition and participation.

He told of the problems that confronted Glades farmers when entire crops were flooded out. These disaster events and particularly the 1946-47 floods spurred a small group to "do something about it."

Reports were made by Mrs. Justina Croft at the club's business meeting, and members were urged to attend the District 8 meeting in Palm Beach the week of April 26-27.

A slate of officers for the coming year was presented by continuing committee chairman Gladys Jones. Plans for the year meeting were discussed when new officers will be installed. Refreshments were served following the business session.

The six are in the county jail charged with juvenile delinquency, with evidence gathered by Belle Glade's Chief sufficient to establish legal guilt.

Information has been received by THE HERALD that Juvenile Judge Newell will visit the Bottles Fast Suck to gather first hand information on this particular problem.

Local Doctors Attending Annual FMA Convention

Florida's medical doctors will convene April 22-25 at Miami Beach for the 91st annual meeting of the Florida Medical Association. Closed-circuit television will be utilized extensively for scientific sessions in the major subject areas of heart disease, cancer and rehabilitation. Televised clinical demonstrations and discussions originating in Miami's Jackson Memorial Hospital will be beamed to physicians gathered in the Americana Hotel, Bal Harbour.

Dr. Samuel M. Day of Jacksonville, association president, said the 5,200 member organization's four day convention also will include other scientific lectures, films and exhibits, sessions of delegates from the county medical societies, and individual meetings of state medical specialty and other allied groups. The association's woman's auxiliary also will be meeting separately at the same time.

Among the physicians from Belle Glade attending the convention will be Dr. Roy W. Brown, Dr. James A. Gray and Dr. Manuel L. Soto, all of Glades Medical Clinic. Dr. Soto will present a paper, Dr. Lu's Guerrero of Belle Glade Medical Clinic will be attending during the weekend and Dr. John L. Grady expects to attend his busy schedule permits.

Wm. G. Nicholson Chosen To Attend Honor Meeting

William G. Nicholson, of 809 Churchill Road, West Palm Beach, who has made many friends in the Glades area, was selected to attend the Burroughs Corporation Legion of Honor meeting in Atlanta held this week to cite the company's outstanding salesmen.

"Membership in the Legion of Honor is the highest distinction which a Burroughs salesman can receive," said B. C. Smith, Branch Manager. "The men who achieve membership in the Legion are those with exceptional talent and ability."

Nicholson, who joined Burroughs in 1963, has been assigned to the West Palm Beach office since 1964.

As President of the West Palm Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce he is very active in their projects.

Some 33 state and nationally known medical authorities will appear on the FMA scientific program. In addition, nearly 50 other speakers will participate in various individual specialty group programs. Principal out-of-state speakers will be famous cancer surgeon Dr. George T. Pack, attending surgeon emeritus, Memorial Cancer Center and attending surgeon, Pack Medical Group, New York; Dr. Danton A. Cooley, professor of surgery, Baylor University College of Medicine, Houston and Dr. Henry N. Harkins, professor and chairman department of surgery, University of Washington School of Medicine, Seattle.

OES Smorgasbord Friday, April 30

Another one of those delicious Smorgasbords will be held by the Order of Eastern Star on Friday, April 30.

Mrs. Beah Simmons, chairman, announces serving begins at 5:30 p. m. at the Civic Center in Belle Glade. Adult tickets are $1.50 and children under 12 are 75 cents.

Mrs. Jo Aspey is in charge of ticket sales or contact any Eastern Star member. Tickets will also be on sale at the Belle Glade Machine Shop by Don Aspey.

Honorary Degrees To Be Presented To Mrs. Wedgworth

The University of Florida will present two honorary degrees and a pair of significant Alumni Awards as part of the annual commencement program in Florida Gymnasium April 26.

Honorary degrees will go to Lewis F. Powell Jr., of Richmond, Va., president of the American Bar Association and featured commencement speaker, and to Mrs. Ruth Springer Wedgworth of Belle Glade, an active state figure in business, farming and civic affairs.

Mrs. Wedgworth is the principal owner and executive of one of Florida's largest vegetable, cattle and sugar cane farmers and has helped to develop the state's famed Everglades into one of the most important farming areas in the world. She served as a member of Gov. LeRoy Collins' Committee on Migrant workers and on the Florida Citizens' Committee on Education. Mrs. Wedgworth is the only woman to serve as president of the Florida Horticultural Society—the oldest and largest society of its kind in the nation.

"Doing well is all right, but when a man reaches the point where he doesn't want to do better, he is done for."

"Never leave business to look for business. Do today's business today and tomorrow's business tomorrow."

You and "They"

Whenever we are faced with the grim fact of cancer — through the death of a loved one, or the long illness of a friend, or even our own struggle with the dread disease — we inevitably ask: "When will 'they' find a cure for cancer?"

"They" haven't yet found a magic cure-all for cancer, but "they" have already discovered so many different ways to fight the disease that there are 1-300,000 Americans alive today who have been cured. "They" can now save one out of every three cancer patients and are working toward a realistic goal of saving one out of two.

But "they" haven't done all this alone. They have had help. Your help.

This is Crusade against Cancer month. At this time, in particular, the American Cancer Society asks you to get to know the Seven Danger Signals of cancer and, if you should have one that persists more than two weeks, go to your doctor. In its early stages, cancer is usually localized in one area and grows painlessly. If detected and treated before it spreads, cancer can often be cured.

For example, three out of four patients with cancer of the colon and rectum can be cured if diagnosed and treated.

ed promptly. That is why you should have a simple proctoscopic examination once a year as part of a regular health checkup — little enough for you to do if "they" are to save your life.

Again, the American Cancer Society reports that cancer of the lung is the most rapidly mounting cause of death from cancer. Cigarette smoking is the major cause of lung cancer. So if you are already a smoker, stop smoking, and if you don't smoke, don't start. Obviously you can do more to insure yourself from lung cancer than anything "they" can do.

Then there's another way that "they" need your help.

If "they" are to continue to search for causes to discover new anti-cancer drugs, to develop new surgical techniques, build more powerful radiation equipment . . . "they" need you.

During Crusade against Cancer month each and everyone of us has a special opportunity to join the American Cancer Society in its mounting of defensive against cancer.

Give . . . and give generously, so "they" can go on working to protect you and your loved ones against cancer.

Let's Join In!

April 18-24 is Spring Clean-up Week

Belle Glade is inhabited by some of the nicest, warmest, friendliest and neatest people that can be found anywhere. It also, unfortunately, is inhabited by some of the sloppiest.

The picture at the top of this page shows a condition that exists in Belle Glade that should not be put to shame every citizen in the area who allows it to exist. Such rubbish, garbage-littered heaps affect the health and welfare of every citizen in Belle Glade.

It is infuriating that there are some Belle Glade citizens who think so little of their town that they would defile it in this way. It is astonishing that there are people who think so little of their surroundings, themselves and others that they would permit such conditions to exist.

A suggestion has been made by one Belle Glade resident: "Fine 'em $5 whenever trash containers are not up to standard or so much litter and filth exist."

"There are always policemen patrolling who could easily spot such conditions and report to the Sanitation Department."

The Herald passes the suggestion along to the citizens. Governor Hayden Burns has proclaimed April 18-24 Spring Clean-up week. Let us use the balance of this week as a beginning for a real clean-up drive in Belle Glade.

Uncle Dan Says

Dear Mister Editor:

I see by the paper where one of them Government agencies named the General Accounting Office, that calls itself the GAO, is short, was complaining to the Congress that folks in our military needs to take a course in Sears & Roebuck or something.

The GAO claimed the main-tainer departments of our Army, Navy and Air Force don't know how to use the Government catalogues for ordering parts. For instance, they reported, an Army unit in south Florida was needing four pairs of generator brushes that cost $3 a pair. On December 11 some feller in the maintainer department ment sent in a order for the whole generator assembly unit. The next day another feller in the same department, unbeknownst to the first one, duplicated the order. On December 20 they received 16 complete motor generators that cost $38, 192 instead of the $12 worth of parts they needed.

April 27: Denise Hooker.
April 28: Paul White, T. G. Mayo, L. G. Berryhill, Michelle Harris, Peggy Ruth Carpenter.

Furthermore, claimed the GAO, the military never sends nothing back, they just hide their mistakes in the warehouse and put in a new order. One of our Congressmen, taking note of this system, allowed as how if the Navy would order an anchor and a battleship by mistake, they would just hold a big launching ceremony and put the battleship in dry dock. In the last two years, claimed the GAO, the military has ordered $13 million worth of spare parts they didn't need and can't never use. Of course, Mister Editor, it was mighty fortunate it ain't nothing but tax money, but it would seem we might be better off to swap our program of turning off lights in the White House for one calling on the armed forces to set up a training school for teaching the maintainer departments how to order spare parts. It could be sorted along the lines of West Point and Annapolis. And if them Cadets at the Air Force Academy don't get that exam situation straightened out, we might use that installation for a spell and call it Catalogue College U. S. A.

And in case you missed it, a Washington column writer has sprung up in the world. It is called the Republic of New Atlantis. According to this column writer, they was this small island off the coast of Jamaica with 20 people living on it. They was already independent but they declared it official and built themselves a statelyhouse 8 by 30 feet out of bamboo poles. Things was pretty shaky there for a while. They ousted their President and installed his wife, and three times the statelyhouse

As Vacation Time Nears . . .

Casual greeting conversations have daily pointed up that folks in the Glades are generally a bit tired along about this time of year. We question that citizens in any area in this whole wonderful United States "hit it harder" or put in more hours "during the season" than do many of the Glades. Along about this time of year all are admitting to Spring Fever and counting up the days until they can "get away from it all" for a spell.

Ambition and accomplishments are commendable, but we're also reminded human beings are not meant to be machines. We liked this little verse which tells it well:

If you hold your nose to the grindstone rough,
And keep it down there long enough,
You will soon forget there are such things
As brooks that babble and birds that sing!
These three things will your world compose:
Just you, and a stone . . . and your darned old nose

Sandy Soil Farmers Invited To Attend Immokalee Field Day

The South Florida Field Lab of the Agricultural Experiment Station will conduct the Sixth Annual Field Day here on April 27, at 1 p. m.

The laboratory is located four miles north of Immokalee on State Highway 29.

Following registration at 1 p. m., Donald S. Burgess of the Gulf Coast Station will discuss, "Weed control in vegetable production on sandy soil." Dr. J. J. Jones, also from Gulf Coast, will discuss, "Disease control on tomato, pepper and cucumber."

Dr. J. M. Crall, Watermelon and Grape Lab, will give comments on breeding watermelons with resistance to watermelon mosaic virus. Dr. W. C. Adler, will discuss insect control on watermelons. Dr. John E. McCabe of the Range Cattle Station, will give, "An evaluation of introduced and native grass species for pasture."

Dr. P. H. Everett, South Florida Field Lab, will discuss fertility studies on watermelons and tomatoes and tomato and cantaloupe variety trials. The public is invited.

People come in three classes: the few who make things happen, the many who watch things happen, and the overwhelming majority who have little or no idea what happened.

Nothing will ruin this democracy if the people themselves will protect its safety. Nothing can save it if they leave that safety in any hands but its own. Benjamin Franklin was blown down by the winds, but now they have got everything stabilized and the President has wrote to our State Department in Washington to get on the foreign aid program. This column writer was of the opinion they'd be took care of.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Zing into spring! Chevrolet Impala

Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Coupe—one of two bucket-seated beauties for '65.

People who buy other big expensive-looking cars get one thing you won't (big expensive-looking payments)

It looks like a big car. And is—by almost any standard you want to apply.

Width? Nobody builds a car as much as one inch wider. Length? It grew three inches this year. Roominess? Every closed model's got three inches more shoulder room, front and rear, and more leg and foot room up front too. Luxury? New little touches like the look of mellow walnut across the Impala's instrument panel. And big touches. Like the fineness of the same Body by Fisher workmanship that makes some of America's most expensive cars look so expensive. How about the ride? Chevrolet engineers took the Jet-smooth one and smoothed it out even more this year. Also made it more stable by widening the wheel stance. Price? That's where Chevrolets fall way short of the other big expensive-looking cars. But we wouldn't have it any other way. Would you?

One last question: How soon can you make a good spring buy on a Chevrolet? One last answer: Just as soon as you can get down to your Chevrolet dealer's.

Senior Hi Lites

John Brown Evans, whose favorites are Humanities and Baseball, is the male star in SENIOR HI-LITES this week. John was born on December 18, 1947 in Fort Pierce, Florida, and he declares that he likes any record not by the Beatles. John has often been heard to say "Makes you wonder, don't it," and he also states that grouchy teachers is his pet peeve. John BROWN claims that green is his favorite color, but BROWN is always "crooping up." (He has BROWN hair and BROWN eyes) John Brown may be seen in his '64 Pontiac 500, but he's only wishing that it was a '65 silver blue Plymouth with black interior. An active member of the Interact Club, John plans to attend Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College in Tifton, Ga.

Chosen as the girl student of the week, Vencie Venita Rogers is better known to all of us as "Vencie." This hazel-eyed brunette is 5'7" and loves anything blue. Vencie was born on October 4, 1947, in Gadsden, Alabama; but she came to our warm sunshine state in 1960. As Vencie listens to "I'm A Fool For Loving You" she may be heard to say "It really breaks me up!" She can't stand to be awakened early in the morning unless, of course, it's to go water skiing at Weiss Lake. Vencie is often seen driving around in a '56 red and white Pontiac; however, she would prefer to be looking out the sparkling windows of a '65 Malibu. Maybe she'll be driving one this September when she leaves to go to Bell Isles Business College in Palm Beach. We wish this hearty Cheerleader best wishes for a happy future.

What About Low Grades?

The competent student who gets consistently low grades in school needs understanding help not reviling blame. Blame only piles up trouble. It is understandably difficult for parents to have such a state of affairs in the family. It is a blow to the pride which would take great satisfaction in seeing the student at the top of his class or near the top. It is irritating, too, not to have him in that position of prestige when one feels convinced that he could achieve it if he would. Trying to figure out why he won't do it can be distressingly baffling. This is from the parents' angle — but what of the students? This is the point at which to begin. Why does he make poor grades when he could make good ones? First of one, he must be sure that he really could make good ones. Sometimes the idea that he could do so is wishful thinking. Granted in this instance it is not that, then where shall one begin for possible reasons? Sometimes a student is fearful of the competition with a brother or sister. He accepts the poor grade rather than risk the possibility of failure. Sometimes a student does not understand the work he is supposed to do and is held back from asking for explanations either by pride, or fear, or not being certain just what it is he does not understand. So he skims along the best as he can without quite knowing HOW to get out of the difficulty he is in. The more quickly and, of course, accurately one can put a finger on the cause of the trouble the better position he is in to find the remedy. Blame, in my opinion, is only a waste of time. In looking for both cause and remedy one is wise to turn to the teacher. For teachers and parents can do more working together than alone.

Glenn Wolf Nominated For National English Award

Glenn Wolf has been nominated for the annual Achievement Awards Program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE). For the eighth year, NCTE is conducting the national Awards competition to grant recognition to outstanding high school seniors for excellence in English. The writing abilities and literary awareness of each nominee will be judged by local and state committees, and NCTE will announce the winners in December, 1965. The winners' names will be sent to every U. S. college and university director of admissions and English department chairman with the recommendation that these students be considered for scholarship assistance. According to James R. Squire, Executive Secretary of NCTE, the Awards Program is part of a comprehensive program undertaken by the Council in cooperation with American high schools to encourage improvement in English language and literature at all grade levels. By stimulating interest in English studies and by supporting the improved instruction in English, the NCTE seeks to contribute to an educational program of excellence.

DO'S AND DON'TS

APPLYING FOR A JOB

Summer is coming, and with its arrival many students will start considering summer jobs. Those who graduate may be considering permanent employment. The following is an excerpt from "The Seventeen Book of Etiquette and Entertaining" by Elsie A. Mapp. HOW DO YOU GET AN INTERVIEW? If you're applying to a small or medium-sized firm, call for an appointment. If you're answering an ad, do what it says. If someone you know arranges an interview for you, be sure you get the address and the time accurately. ALLOW EXTRA TIME to get to your interview. It's inevitable that when you have to get somewhere on time, the elevator is stuck or the traffic jams — and you arrive too late to get the job or too frantic after the scrambling to sound as if you could handle it. AN APPLICATION BLANK may be handed to you sometime during the interview. You'll seem much more efficient if you have your own pen. Look at each question carefully before filling it in; your application will look much neater if you haven't hastily put your telephone number in the space for city and postal-zone number and drawn all the lines down the top of the page. Complete all the answers and sign the form if it says so. If there's a question you can't answer (What foreign languages do you speak?) write "none" or draw a line through the space given for answering just to show you've focused on the question. The interviewer or prospective employer can tell a great deal about you by the way you fill out this business form; you don't want his first opinion to be CARELESS. ATTENTION TO DIRECTIONS TAKING SOME TESTS may be part of the interview. Don't be at all nervous or hesitantly write a "Well, what KIND of test?" Even if you feel those trembling hands couldn't type ten words a minute, sound competent with a "Yes, a course" when you're asked. Interviewers are always for nervousness and lack of experience. You may also be given some psychological tests, but with questions that sound pretty silly to you. Answer them as sensibly and accurately as you can; don't spend so long over one sicker of a question that you have to rush.

Who Is It?

This week this picture was passed around school to see if the students could guess WHO THEY ARE. Here are a few of the replies. FARRELL KAUFMAN — "Mike and Dee Dec." BRENDIA BASS — "It's Dee Dec. I know because we used to be friends. We went to school that way." SHERRI BURGESS — "It looks like Dee Dec and Mike but I'm not sure." REBECCA BROWN — "It's Mike and Dee Dec. Shoot, anyone can tell that!" THERESA WILDER — "Who do you think it is? It's Mike and Dee Dec. Where did you get it?" AMANDA BAILEY — "I've seen that picture before — It's Mike and Dee Dec." MISS SCHWAB — "I don't know." After giving the hint that replied "Sherry? Cynthia? Heck, I don't know who it is. Is she an idiot? Second? First? Replied Wanda? Kathy? Dee Dec? Dee Dec! That's the last person I'd guess! Dee Dec!" PAUL LLEWELLYN — "It's Mike and Dee Dec. Not that I've known them since they were about that high." PAT FISHER — "Oh, that's cute. I know who it is. It's Dee Dec and Mike. They look like little dolls." JULIE BURNETT — "What grade are they in? Is it Sherri Burgess? I don't know who it is!" SUSIE WIERENGO — "It's Mike and Dee Dec. They look like twins."

Criticism Hurts

Remember the time your teacher took you aside and told you that you needed to put more time and effort into your English themes? Or the time your mother reproached you for not being more considerate to your grandmother on her last visit? If these particular incidents haven't happened to you, some similar ones undoubtedly have, and the criticism, deserved or not, hurt.

That's only natural. No one likes to have his weaknesses pointed out. It's how you TAKE criticism that counts. Most of the time it's being offered constructively. Once you realize this, you won't be so sensitive. You'll capitalize on it by using it for self-improvement.

Criticism is something you don't always direct at individuals alone. Quite often, it is aimed at groups or organizations. Here again, you should guard against condemning all the activities or members of the group just because you disapprove of one member or one activity. So, before we are so eager to criticize, let's remember that familiar cliché, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

BOOK OF THE WEEK Paper Moon by Marjory Hall Candy Chase, forced to leave Miss Greer's school and find some way to support herself when her mother becomes a stowaway, lands a job with a stationary firm and learns to make a new life for herself. Her encounters with a boy from the past provide a romance for this book. BOOKWORK OF THE WEEK Lydia Steele, a junior, is the bookworm for this week. Her reading record goes as high as ten books a week! THOUGHT OF THE WEEK — "Warrior books are not common. They are solidities: we find ourselves and all our fears in them." —Bally—FESTUS

Burnt or Peeled

Have you been to the beach recently and stayed in the sun so long forgetting that you might be cooking. Even though it may be a cloudy day, the sun rays are still effective. Some known remedies to prevent you from peeling or burning that may cure or kill are as follows:

Before you go into the water be sure you are well coated with either sun-tan lotion or baby oil. This will prevent you from getting burned so fast. As soon as you come from out of the sun, generously apply vinegar straight from the bottle on your skin. If you take this precaution, you may not peel.

Olive oil is another home remedy that will lubricate your dried-out skin. Calomine lotion and cocoa butter will relieve you from the suffering effects of the sun.

If you want a sure cure for not getting burned or peeling later, just don't go out.

Can You Imagine

Kevin Walsh staying in school for a full week. Alice Rashley weighing 200 pounds. Larry Altman and Joe White rooting for the New York Yankees. Beverly Steele riding a tricycle to school. Having a jungle in the patio for next year. Most of the time it's being offered constructively. Once you realize this, you won't be so sensitive. You'll capitalize on it by using it for self-improvement.

Safety in Shop

Safety is of major importance in each of our lives, but those boys in the Industrial Arts Program are especially aware of this factor. After one hundred and forty-five days, the classes in this organization have had only one very minor accident. In all of last year there were only three accidents.

At the beginning of the year, the classes undertake a safety program. They are to work on their projects in shop, safety becomes second nature, or at least, it had better. According to Mr. Jimmy Ward, "Any boy I find not working with safety gets my memory course — the 'BOARD' of education."

Faculty Members Evaluate School

Mrs. Helen Cline and Mr. Pelton Morris were on the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools evaluation committee to evaluate certain standards of the new Martin County Senior High School of Stuart last week. The evaluation is to be held every 10 years, and the information is to be used in making school improvements, during the next year period.

Mr. Morris was vice-chairman of the committee and helped in judging the curriculum. Mrs. Cline judged the English department. Dr. Wilbur Marshall, director of secondary Education in Broward County, was the chairman of the committee. The investigating team was made up of 13 members, five of them being principals.

What Is A Person?

"Personality isn't just the ability to chatter away and say things that will keep your friends amused. Personality starts INSIDE you. It's a genuine interest in other people. It's being able to see someone else's point of view. It's inner warmth and a pleasant disposition even under the most trying circumstances. Personality is extending your hand in friendship in a way that silently says, 'I like you.' It's the smile on your face and the twinkle in your eye. The people with personality sparkle and bubble so naturally that you can't tell where personality ends and charm and good looks begin."

No se olvide que el Baile del Altar Society de Belle Glade y Pacheco tendra lugar el Sabado 24. Y el lunes 26 de Abril, de 7 a 9 p. m. los alumnos, hasta el 6o grado, del Belle Glade Elementary, tendran su exhibicion de arte en el Colegio. Daran primer, segundo y tercer premio. Mas mencion honorable por cuarto premio. Vendran Juces de fuera, y los cuadros ganadores seran exhibidos en el Norton Art Gallery, de West Palm Beach. Los padres de los muchachos y el publico, estan invitados.

El Dr. Alfredo Pereira y su esposa Maria Elena con sus tres hijos, la abuela Sra. Elenita A. de Suarez, Miguel Pichardo, Jelsa, el Dr. Rafael Gonzalo Freyre y Nana su senora, Maria de los Angeles Freyre de Betancourt y sus tres hijas, Gina y Popilin Rubiales y su hijo Pedro Jose. Felicitades sin fin les deseamos.

El dia 15 del actual en el Civic Center, auspiciado por el Woman's Club los alumnos del Belle Glade Kindergarten, representaron una pieza titulada "CIRCUS" bajo la direccion de sus profesoras Myrtice Gilman y Florence Powell. Muy gratos en sus actuaciones, y alegres con sus trajes. En el repertorio figuraban los siguientes muchachos Latinos de Belle Glade:

Jorge Echave — Maestro de ceremonias.
Eduardo Recio — Domador de animales.
Oscar Dominguez — Leon.
Loly Castro — Malabarista.

Los esposos Maria Elena y Marcelo Breton estuvieron en Belle Glade, recientemente en casa de la familia de Raquel y Arcadio Camman. Su reciente boda tuvo lugar el dia 10 de Abril en Atlanta, Georgia, viniendo al Sur en su luna de miel, y aprovecharon para saludar en Belle Glade a varias familias de su provincia Camaguey.

Manana, dia 23 de Abril, es una festividad muy popular, el dia de SAN JORGE, a quien representan en una antigua leyenda como "San Jorge y el Dragon". Esta del dragon es curioso, pues ciertamente nada se sabe de tal dragon. Cuando el Emperador Romano Dioclesiano desato la mas terrible de todas las persecuciones contra los Cristianos, al ser fijada la orden de destruir las iglesias, en la puerta del palacio en Nicomedia, un militar de alto rango, la arranco — y fue inmediatamente ejecutado. Este vino a ser San Jorge, santo patron de Inglaterra, y si alguna vez luchó contra un dragon, este debe haber sido el Cesar Imperial.

muchachos al Colegio, despues de saborear esos dias junto a la familia.

La familia de Raquel Y Arcadio Camman desea hacer saber a sus amistades que la misa por el alma de su senora madre, que estaba senalada para las ocho de a noche, manana Viernes 23, ha sido transferida para las siete de la manana del mismo dia.

En el dia de manana 23 de Abril, a las 8 p. m. tendra lugar la Conferencia que dara el Sr. Gustavo de los Reyes, en el Auditorium del Cove Elementary School. El publico esta invitado a oirlo, sin obligacion ni costo de ninguna clase. Comentara sus experiencias sobre el Comunismo. Esperamos con mucho interes esta conferencia.

El Miercoles 14 termino la molienda de la Cooperativa del Glades Sugar House. Esta zafra molio un promedio diario de 7,400 toneladas de cana. El record de un dia fue 9,932 toneladas. Los dirigentes de la Cooperativa incluyendo al Presidente Mr. George Wedgworth, y los senores Bill Miller y Alfred Wehre Jr., estuvieron reunidos ese dia ocupados totalizando las cifras de la zafra, y haciendo analisis de la cosecha y fabricacion.

DULCE & FERDY TARAFÁ

Entre los muchos muchachos que llegaron de los Colegios a pasar sus vacaciones en Belle Glade, encontramos a Dulcita y Ferdy Tarafa, quienes vinieron de Tampa, de Holy Names Academy y Mary Help of Christians, a pasar sus vacaciones junto a sus hermanitos Lenny, Alberto, Mari-Tere y Roberto, sus padres Fefa y Fernando Tarafa, y su abuela Maria Teresa Larrea. De visita con Dulcita, vino su prima Beba Tarafa y Carol, de West Palm Beach, para pasar Easter junto a ella, y a su ahijadito Roberto, de seis meses de nacido.

Ahora que se esta escribiendo tanto sobre las enfermedades del cancer y la leucemia, cuantos en el siglo 13, un joven sacerdote italiano sono que su "viena cancerosa, la cual iban a amputarle a la mañana siguiente, se habia puesto buena. Cuando despierto, ya no tenia cancer. Vivio en buena salud hasta 1345, muriendo de vejez a los 10 años. Se llamaba San Peregrino, el "Santo del Cancer".

Mas de 300 curas de cancer y otros males serios se le han atribuido a oraciones por su intercesion. Tambie a Mother Seton, Beata de las Hermanas de la Caridad, las monjas le rezaban por una hermana vieja de la Caridad, que sufria de cancer inoperable en el pancreas. Esta monja se puso bien de pronto, y cuando ella murio fue por causas pulmonares, sin trazas de cancer.

Tenemos el caso de la pequeña Ann O'Neill, de 4 años, le diagnosticaron leucemia linfatica. Y parecia al borde de la muerte, cuando las monjas de St. Agnes Hospital de Baltimore, le empezaron a rezar a Mother Seton. La pequeña Ann se puso bien, y en estos momentos es una estudiante de High School, sin evidencia alguna de leucemia.

Algunos piensan que es milagro, otros lo que en la profesion medica llaman regresion espontanea, y los cientificos son de idea que esta cura total se basa en el campo de la inmunidad.

Governor Proclaims Spring Clean-up

It's time to clean-up for safety around the home, says A. M. Pettis, agricultural engineer, Florida Agricultural Extension Service.

Governor Haydon Burns has proclaimed April 18-24 as Spring Clean-Up Week. Governor Burns urges rural and urban families to support this campaign "to make Florida farms and homes safe for all citizens."

The Florida Rural Accident Prevention Association is coordinating a state-wide campaign to prevent accidents and remove unsafe conditions on farms and in homes, Pettis said. Disorder, Pettis points out, ranks second to poor judgment as the principal cause of accidents. "Accidents on farms and in homes frequently occur as a result of cluttered, untidy surroundings."

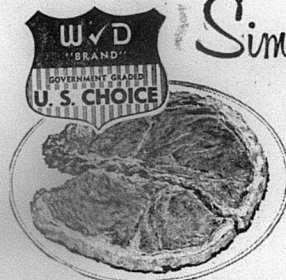

Preventable, destructive fires continue to be a cause of human suffering and economic waste in communities through Florida, the specialist said.

A home safe from fire depends upon good family habits about fire and its hazards, and good construction.

Good family habits include care with matches and smoking, good house keeping to get rid of rubbish, proper use of electrical fuses, appliances, and extension cords, and a constant general awareness of the ways fires start and how to avoid them.
